

1997 SMALL BUSINESS PROFILE

SMALL BUSINESS: BACKBONE OF THE ALASKA ECONOMY

The importance of small business to the state of Alaska is evident in the 1997 Small Business Profile. The findings reported in this year's profile, compiled by the U.S. Small Business Administration's (SBA) Office of Advocacy, clearly indicate the crucial role small businesses play in the state's economy. Not only do small businesses play a vital role as job creators, but their diversity and composition provide the work force with endless opportunities.

Number of Businesses - In 1996, Alaska had 15,631 businesses with employees; 97.1 percent of the businesses were small businesses (percent based on 1994 data for independent businesses with fewer than 500 workers). In addition to the number of employer businesses, the state also had 33,000 self-employed persons in 1996, for an estimated total of 48,631 businesses.
